

Beierwaltes Seminar VI

The True Self

Concepts of Divine and Human Subjectivity

Tuesday, 25th February 2020
Clare College, Cambridge
Thirkill Room

- 09.00–09.30 Douglas HEDLEY, Cambridge
Introduction and Reading Session: Werner BEIERWALTES, Das wahre Selbst / The True Self
- 09.30–10.15 Samuel POMEROY, Leuven
Origen as Political Philosopher
- Coffee break*
- 10.30–11.15 Christian HENGSTERMANN, Münster
Superintellectual Vision and the Hegemonikon – Origenian Concepts of Divine and Human Subjectivity and Freedom in George Rust, Ralph Cudworth and Henry More
- 11.15–12.30 Marilyn A. LEWIS, Bristol
Henry Hallywell (1641–1703): A Reader of William Spencer's 1658 Edition of Origen's Contra Celsum
- Lunch break*
- 13.15–14.00 Adrian MIHAI, Cambridge
Subjectivity and Personhood in Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- 14.00–14.45 Thomas HANKE, Frankfurt
A Platonic Mary Magdalene. Platonic and Plotinian Motifs of Self-Constitution in Hegel's Frankfurt Fragments

Cambridge Centre for the Study of Platonism

Coffee break

15.15–16.00 Stephan TILCH, Münster
Religious Consciousness and the Unbewitched Theoria. J.N. Findlay's and
W. Cramer's Theories of the Absolute

16.00–16.45 Benedikt P. GÖCKE, Bochum/Oxford/Cambridge
Physicalism and Subjectivity

Coffee break

17.00–17.45 Jon THOMPSON, Cambridge
Self, Memory, and Eschaton

17.45–18.00 Final Panel Discussion